Wary cough yourself to death, when the use of a bottle of Balsam Tolu and Glycolite of Tar will give immediate relief?

THE schools have been closed until next Monday, and the small boy rejoices that he has Thanksgiving once a year, anyhow.

THE Lexington Press says George McCarthy has gone to Cincinnati to spend the winter. He will probably engage in business in that city.

ASA PAYNE, who resides near Lexington, is said to be ninety-nine years old. He is enjoying good health and rides over his farm most every day.

Mrs. JOHN GASS' boarding house at Paris was destroyed by fire last Saturday. The building belonged to Mrs. Mary Duncan and was insured for $5,000. It is not known how the fire originated.

AYEN'S Sarsaparilla works directly and promptly to purify and enrich the blood, improve the appetite, strengthen the nerves and brace up the system. It is, in the truest sense, an alternative medicine. Every invalid should give it a trial.

M. C. KINK, of Tuckahoe, shipped three cattle Monday to Cincinnati that weighed 6,600 pounds. Montgomery and Clark counties will now have to yield the championship for heavy weights to Mason. The cattle above-mentioned carried off first premium at the Germania Fair last month.

If people troubled with colds would take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral before going to church or place of entertainment, they would avoid coughing, greatly to the comfort of both speakers and hearers. Public speakers and singers find that the Pectoral wonderfully increases the power and flexibility of the voice.

ONE of the largest mules ever sent from this city was shipped on the Bonanza Monday night to S. R. Brooks, at Cincinnati. It is seventeen hands high and weighs 1,675 pounds. Mr. Brooks, we are informed, will place the animal on exhibition. It was purchased from parties near Owingsville, Bath County.

EVERY day brings fresh testimony of the superiority of Ballenger's Diamond spectacles over any others. A lady who had not been able, with any others, to see the eye of a needle for years, saw perfectly with the Diamond. Others, after a few weeks, are able to discontinue the use of spectacles entirely. For sale by Ballenger.

THE white apron hop at Neptune Hall last night was largely attended. Dancing was indulged in until the " wee sma' hours," to the music of Sisk's & Bailey's orchestra, and joy reigned in every heart. Nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the guests. The managers deserve credit for the successful and orderly manner in which everything was conducted.

Complimentary Benefit.
The First Regiment Band will give a complimentary concert to Professor Knoll, at the court house, Tuesday night, November 30th. Mr. Knoll has been a faithful and patient drill-master, as the excellence to which he has brought that band fully attests. He has endeared himself to the people of Maysville by his gentlemanly deportment, as well as by his musical ability, and proposes to remain a citizen among us. He will prove a big addition to our musical taste. General, and give students an opportunity to secure the services of a thorough and competent teacher. Remember the concert at the court house, November 30th. New features and new music.

SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTITUTE.

For the Thirteenth District of Kentucky—Full Proceedings.

The Sunday School Institute for the Thirteenth district of Kentucky, embracing the counties of Mason, Lewis, Fleming, Nicholas, Robertson and Bracken, under the auspices of the Kentucky Sunday School Union, convened Tuesday, November 23d, at 11 a. m., in the Central Presbyterian Church, this city. Rev. Carroll Ghent, of Elizaville, President, in opening, read the 19th Psalm, which was followed by a song and prayer service. Rev. Russell Cecil, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, spoke "hearty words of welcome," which were responded to by the President.

The following committees were announced:
Committee on Enrollment—A. M. J. Cochran, Maysville; James N. Boyd, Dover; William H. Savary, Maysville.
Business Committee—Rev. John Reeves, Flemingsburg; J. J. Wood, Maysville; B. F. Taylor, Augusta.

Committee on Resolutions—Rev. J. H. Heron, Augusta; Rev. P. F. Hendrick, Flemingsburg; John S. Wilson, Dover.
Secretary—Rev. T. F. Garrett, Sardis.
Three sessions, despite the heavy rainfall, were held during the day, during which the following topics were discussed: "Viewing the Field," reports by B. F. Taylor, Augusta; James F. Roberson, Maysville; Rev. J. R. Deering, Lexington; Rev. J. P. Hendrick, Flemingsburg; also James F. Huber, Huber's Station, Secretary of the Kentucky Sunday School Union.

"The Adult Bible Class" was discussed by Rev. E. E. Bigger, of Augusta, followed by Rev. Russell Cecil, of Maysville.

"The Sunday School of To-day, the Church of To-morrow," was the theme handled by Rev. H. M. Scudder, of Elizaville.

The Sunday school workers of the institute were greeted that evening by a large audience. The session was opened with singing "My Soul Boon Thy Guard." Rev. E. L. Powell, of Maysville, read Romans, 10th chapter, and led in prayer.

After a short song and prayer service, James F. Huber, of Huber's Station, Secretary and visitor for Kentucky Sunday School Union, addressed the audience on "The Purpose and Work of the Kentucky Sunday School Union."

"Do the Times Demand Christian Cooperation, and What Good May Be Expected From It?" was the theme of the address by Rev. J. R. Deering, of Lexington. His remarks were interesting and entertaining throughout.

By request, James F. Huber sang two solos, "The Model Church," and "The Handwriting on the Wall," after which the meeting adjourned till Wednesday at 9 a. m.

WEDNESDAY.

The institute was opened with song and prayer service led by Rev. R. B. Garrett. The first address was by Rev. John Reeves, of Flemingsburg, on "Reasons for Sunday School Work," which was thoughtful and earnest, and highly appreciated by those present.

Next came the "Teacher's Preparation," by Rev. Thomas Hanford, who entertained the institute in his usually happy and original way. His remarks were wholesome and helpful.

The question drawer was conducted by Mr. James F. Huber. Many pointed and practical questions were presented and answered by Mr. Huber and others in a satisfactory manner.

Committee on Resolutions then reported. Among others the following which was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this body are due and are hereby tendered the K. C. R. R., which has extended courtesies to the members; to the press of the city for its valued help in our work; to the officers and members of the Central Presbyterian Church for the use of their beautiful edifice, and to the citizens of Maysville for their generous hospitality during our sessions.

J. R. HERON,
J. S. WILSON,
J. P. HENDRICK.

Time and place of next meeting was referred to the State Executive Committee, together with the President of this district.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the institute resolved itself into a Sunday school in session, with all officers and teachers, and went regularly through the exercises and lessons. This was the best attended of all the exercises and probably the most profitable. About two hundred officers and scholars were present, besides thirty or forty visitors. A few seemed to think that it was a sham Sunday school, and failed to catch the spirit of the occasion. Such was not the intention, but the idea was to fully equip a Sunday school and go through all the exercises in the same spirit of earnestness and worship as at other times. This exercise was a great success.

Following upon the Sunday school came an admirable chalk sermon for the little people by Rev. T. F. Garrett, of Sardis. Mr. Garrett is certainly an adept in this exercise. He succeeds in securing the undivided attention of the children, and impresses many useful lessons. At 7 o'clock, the opening exercises consisting of a song and prayer service, were conducted by Rev. Thomas Hanford.

A collection was then taken for the benefit of the Kentucky Sunday School Union, which amounted to $53.65.

Short, earnest addresses were then made by Revs. E. L. Powell, Russell Cecil, Thomas Hanford and Mr. James Bracken. The exercises of the institute were concluded by a few appropriate remarks by the President, Carroll Ghent, who presided over the deliberations of the institute with grace and fairness, and made for himself many friends.

It is to be regretted that such a large portion of the christian people of Maysville treated with utter neglect the disinterested efforts of these consecrated workers to improve the methods of conducting Sunday schools, by which the children of the many families in this community and district are to be instructed and benefited, but we are sure that those who attended were profited, and we hope that the influence may go out through them to those who manifested such total indifference to what was going on.

LIBERAL REWARD.

A liberal reward will be paid for the body of Joseph Martin, colored, who was drowned from the steamer Handy No. 2, November 23d, at some point above Vaneoburg. He was forty-one old, five feet in height, had sunken chin whiskers, and a mustache. When last seen he had on a blue shirt and light yellowish colored pants, was in his shirt sleeves and wore a blue apron. Had a plain gold ring on the third finger of his right hand. Anyone finding his body will address or telephone the Handy No. 2 or St. Lawrence.

THE "Jim Cummings" Letter.

Through the kindness of Mr. Arch Scudder, express agent on the steamer St. Lawrence, we have been shown a stereotyped copy of one of the letters written to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat by "Jim Cummings," the express robber. A comparison of it with the letter written to the BULLETIN from Hanf's Hotel, Cincinnati, O., last week, shows a striking similarity in the handwriting. The one to the Globe-Democrat was written with lead pencil and the one to the BULLETIN with pen and ink. The style of writing in the body of the former letter is more angular than in the latter, but the two signatures are almost precisely similar. When the letter to the BULLETIN was received it was thought to be a hoax, gotten up by some of our friends, but we are inclined to doubt this now. The similarity in the handwriting of the two letters was commented on by Mr. Scudder and all who saw them. It will be remembered that Cummings says he is a "Maysville man," and left here two years ago. If he speaks truly, who is he? The BULLETIN letter has been sent to the express authorities at Cincinnati.

THE WOOD-PROCTOR Nuptials.

An event in the south Mason social world was the marriage of Miss Lou Emma Proctor, of Shannon, to Mr. Ben W. Wood, of Fern Leaf, yesterday at 10 a. m. The bride is the only child of Mr. W. S. Proctor, one of Mason's best farmer citizens. Miss Proctor is a young lady of much culture, refinement and of large and influential connections. She is one of the handsomest ladies that frequent Shannon Church, that resort so famous for its beauties. Mr. Wood and she have been devoted from childhood, and the culmination of their devotions has been a safe prediction for months. The groom is a young gentleman of many excellent business qualifications, with pleasant and popular manners, and well-wishes for the newly wedded are the universal sentiment.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Harris. The wedding march was sweetly rendered by Miss Nannie Bland. The bride was attired in a becoming traveling costume of brown ottoman cloth.

Mrs. A. B. McAttee and W. T. Brown, acting as ushers, gallantly and promptly. There were many useful and pretty wedding presents, for parlor and banqueting hall. Numerous friends were present from other points, all of whose names we did not catch. "Showers of blessings" followed the carriage that bore away bride and groom. They left on the afternoon train for Cincinnati, whence they will visit relatives in Maryland, and while there will take in the sights of Baltimore and Washington, not failing to call on the President, who has a warm place in his heart for all those who have "gone and done likewise."

PERSONAL.

Judge Matt Walton and Colonel Samuel A. Walton returned to Lexington yesterday.

Rev. H. B. Taylor arrived from Falmouth last evening to spend a few days with his family.
Miss Sallie Burrows has gone to Augusta to spend Thanksgiving and to attend the Bracken County Teachers' Association, which will meet there Saturday.
Miss Lydia Snoot, Miss Carrie Larue, Miss Lula Shackelford, Miss Jennie Taylor, and Miss Mary Toup are spending Thanksgiving with relatives in the vicinity of Maysville.

THE SONG OF THANKSGIVING.

We're thankful for a host of things
Too numerous to mention;
For sweaters, trees and hearts to woo,
And all things worth attention.
For all the things that give us
Our lives so much of pleasure
We offer this, our thanks,
Thine overflowing measure.

RUSSIA'S PITIABLE STATE.

SHE IS COUNTING THE COST OF THE BULGARIAN IMBROGLIO.

A Deficit of One Hundred Millions Routes in Her Finances—The Car Driven Into a State of Chronic Nervous Irritability. Various Other Foreign News.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—Russia is in hardly a less pitiable state than Bulgaria is at the present juncture. There is a deficit of 100,000,000 routes in her finances, which Pan-Slavic committees declare to be a natural result of the war of 1877, and Russia's irritability against Bulgaria. It is the general opinion that every head in Bulgaria has cost Russia 1,000 routes.

Although Bulgaria is unassisted with her engagements, nevertheless Russia is apparently anxious to rescue her from insolvency, though, doubtless, with a view to ulterior profit. Moscow merchants offer to establish commercial stations in Bulgaria, and the large banks offer to supply them with capital.

The additional national perplexities of his empire have driven the czar into a state of chronic nervous irritability. He has threatened to expel several members of his family for meddling with his dynastic affairs. The precarious state of the czar's health has increased his father's anxiety. The physicians attending the czarovich consider his condition serious, but do not dare to reveal their opinions. They have suggested that winter in France, whither the czarina will probably accompany him.

The News From Rome.

ROME, Nov. 25.—Archbishops John J. Keane, of Richmond, Va., and John Ireland, of St. Paul, Minn., have arrived here.

Monsignor Stranieri, the bearer of the beatus to Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore, is expected at the Vatican to-morrow.

Despite the worry occasioned by the Vatican's diplomatic squabbles, the pope has renewed his daily pronouncements in the gardens, which had been recently discontinued.

American travelers will be interested to know that a serious effort is now being made to form an archaeological promenade park in the center of Rome, connecting the capital, the ancient Roman forum and the famous buildings near by. Genuine antiquities and ancient dwelling houses which have been excavated will be removed to the new park for exhibition.

An American Sentenced in London.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—The American named Harris, alias Oron, alias Smith, etc., who was arrested here on October 14, charged with defrauding Messrs. Herries, Farquhar & Co., bankers, out of $1,000 by means of a forged letter of credit, purporting to have been issued by the First National bank of Chicago, was to-day sentenced to five years' penal servitude. Harris, whose real name is said to be Skinner, was formerly a lawyer of some note practicing at the criminal bar in Chicago.

Failed to Get the Loan.

BERLIN, Nov. 25.—Herr Schwarzbach, a partner of Herr Blocherbach, who has returned from St. Petersburg, having suspended negotiations for the present for the Russian loan of 100,000,000 marks. It is reported that since his interview with Prince Bismarck, Herr Blocherbach demanded heavier terms for the proposed loan, which Russia has declined to concede.

The Fate of Murderers.

PARIS, Nov. 25.—A man and wife named Thomas have been sentenced to death, and two brothers of Madame Thomas, named Labou, to imprisonment for life, for the murder and subsequent cremation of the body of the latter's aged mother, that they might inherit her money.

Police Got a Clue.

PESTH, Nov. 25.—The police have obtained what they believe is a most important clue to the whereabouts of the suspected chief of the gang of thieves who recently stole a large amount of money from a safe in the town of Szabadka, Hungary.

A Dynamic Scene.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—Guns were fired in St. James Park at a clock yesterday evening to celebrate the birth of Princess Alexandra. A dense fog hung over the city at the time, and a general excitement reigned in the West End was the consequence.

Moonlighters Arrested.

BELFAST, Nov. 25.—The police patrol at Castle Island were fired upon last night by a party of moonlighters, nine of whom were arrested.

Promoting German Interest in Africa.

BERLIN, Nov. 25.—A society has been formed here for the promotion German interests in South Africa.

Trouble of Knights.

SEADILLA, Mo., Nov. 25.—The Knights of Labor of this city have withdrawn from District Assembly No. 101, and the assemblies will be attached to the state assembly. It is predicted that all other local assemblies on the line of the Gould system in Missouri will follow suit, and that these in Kansas will also withdraw and hereafter work under the jurisdiction of the state assembly. Should this follow the charter of the famous District Assembly No. 101 will be surrendered.

A Circus at Auction.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 25.—W. W. Cole's circus has ceased business, and is selling at auction under the supervision of Mr. Cole and P. T. Barnum. Mr. Cole says he had a good season, and leaves the business two hundred dollars ahead, but the contract requires him to close out at the end of the tour. Barnum's agent has bought some animals, and other circus men are taking the rest at fair prices.

Five Pickets Arrested.

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Nov. 25.—Ninety-six of the strikers' pickets around the knitting mills were arrested yesterday, about half of them being girls. The strikers were out for Friday. There is considerable excitement and the ill feeling over the matter is increasing.

Lost His Head and Healed.

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Nov. 25.—Cornelius Glass, Jr., a contractor of this city, while attempting to board a moving freight train last night lost his hat and it fell into the cars. He had both legs severed, and died this morning.

Schooner Forty-seven Days Out.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 25.—The schooner Annie Hope, with a crew of six, left Mobile forty-seven days ago with lumber for this port. She has not been spoken since and is thought to be foundered.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Epics of the Times Given in a Verse and a Story.

Findlay, O., organized a board of trade. The gas boom did it.

Kentucky Democratic convention will be held May 4 at Louisville.

Evansville, Ind., was treated to a meteoric display last night, said to have been very beautiful.

Twenty boys struck in the cereale mill at Columbus, Ind., for an increase. Their place were filled with new boys.

Charles Clemens, the wife found who assaulted two little girls near Lima, O., and confessed he did the deed because their father owed him $2, only got three years in the pen.

A mysterious cavern has been discovered under Fulton and Elm streets, Louisville, and is supposed to be a rendezvous for fugitives, and during the war as a hiding place for escaped prisoners.

Burglars did Mt. Sterling, Ky., up in great shape and then shipped. Over a dozen houses were entered. It is also thought there is an organized band of horse thieves in Madison and Fayette counties.

At Walsh, Ind., there was a wedding assembly, but when the minister came to tie the knot he found that the wrong name had been entered for the young lady. This stayed the ceremony, and a courier was sent twenty miles to hunt up the county clerk. The marriage took place the next day.

The groom's father presented the license, but forgot the young lady's name, gave one at a guess and caused all the trouble.

A HOODLUM QUEEN.

The Feminine Terror of a Lehigh Valley Railroad Cut.

EASTON, Pa., Nov. 25.—The leading spirit of hoodlums in this vicinity is a girl named Ellen Roth. She is seventeen years old, a devotee of the demijohn and the gin—an evil one—of a locality known as the "Tramp's Paradise." This locality is the Lehigh Valley railroad cut, opposite Easton.

She is apparently as free from the feeling of fear as she is from that of modesty. She earned the title of "the tramp queen" some two years ago by appearing in male attire and "saying" upon rapidly moving coal trains. She is up to all kinds of wild pranks, and is thoroughly versed in the ways of wickedness and figures on more than one page of police court records.

Ellen started on the loveliest kind of a spree Saturday night. About a dozen young men of the neighborhood were with her. Their attempt to gain admission to the Elvoh hotel shortly after 10 o'clock resulted in the landlord closing up for the night. A general fight on the Snufftown road was the next incident.

Fists figured in it, and the girl got a knock down which did not prove a knock out. This followed a bit of an encounter between Constable John R. Laubach and the gang, who subsequently had a free fight among themselves, during which the little girl did her share of giving and taking blows.

Her last adventure for the night was a chase after three fellows who were leaping upon a passing coal train to escape from the gang. She caught the train, too, but was unable to catch them and so returned to her friends hanging to the caboose of another train. The girl is a "terror." There are many in the community who would like to see her placed under restraint and an effort for her relocation or suppression is on foot.

Growing Gloomy.

BOSTON, Nov. 25.—The superior court has overruled defendant's exception and confirmed the conviction of Samuel Beal for murdering Richard N. Lawton on December 24 last. Only executive clemency can now save Beal from the gallows.

Happiness

results from that true contentment which indicates peace of heart and mind. You may possess it, if you will purify and invigorate your blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. E. M. Howard, Newport, N. H., writes: "I suffered for years with Scrofulous humors. After using two bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, great relief. It has entirely restored me to health." James French, Attchboro, Mass., writes: "To all persons suffering from Liver Complaint, I would strongly recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was afflicted with a disease of the liver for nearly two years, when a friend advised me to take this medicine. It gave prompt relief, and has cured me." Mrs. H. M. Kidder, 41 Dwight st., Boston, Mass., writes: "For several years I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in my family. I never feel safe, even without it. As a liver medicine and general purifier of the blood, it has no equal." Mrs. B. A. Allen, Winterport, Va., writes: "My youngest child, two years of age, was taken with Bowel Complaint, which we could not cure. We tried many remedies, but he continued to grow worse, and finally became so reduced in flesh that we could only move him upon a pillow. It was suggested by one of the doctors that Scrofulin might be the cause of the trouble. We procured a bottle of and commenced giving it to him. It surely worked wonders, for, in a short time, he was completely cured."

Found

At Home

Sold by all Druggists.

Price $1; Six bottles, $5.
